

faith & family

Life Source

Family Devotions

Hopefully your preteen is beginning to develop a habit of personal devotions. But there are still plenty of times when your input is needed—and valued. Encourage your child to read the daily Scriptures. Read the verses yourself. Use the questions to help your preteen understand the verses and apply them to life. Discover and learn from God's Word—together!

- SUNDAY—Read Acts 2:1-4.
On the Day of Pentecost, God gave His Spirit to His people in a special way. How have you seen the Spirit of God work in people's lives today?
- MONDAY—Read Acts 3:1-8.
When God healed the man who was crippled, the man wasn't afraid to show his excitement. How can we let others know we are excited because of the good things God does for us?
- TUESDAY—Read Acts 8:26-31, 35.
Philip was willing to go and explain the good news about Jesus to a stranger. With whom can we share the good news of Jesus?
- WEDNESDAY—Read Acts 9:1-6, 10, 15-17.
Saul and Ananias both obeyed the Lord's instructions immediately. In what situations do we need to obey God's instructions today?
- THURSDAY—Read Acts 10:25-27, 34, 35.
Peter realized that God does not show favoritism because God loves everyone. When might it be hard to treat both Christians and non-Christians as people whom God loves? What can we do in those situations?
- FRIDAY—Read Acts 13:42-49.
When crowds of people gathered to hear Paul and Barnabas, the Jews were jealous. Do you ever feel jealous of a Christian friend? How can jealousy prevent us from doing what God wants us to do?
- SATURDAY—Read Revelation 1:1-3, 9-11; 22:8, 9. When John was given a special revelation, an angel reminded John to worship God alone. What can we do to worship God today?

POWER SURGE

Find these verses in the Bible.
Together, memorize the verses.

John 3:16, 17

Talk to God! He's waiting to hear from you!